BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Facets Multimedia is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the media arts. We show great movies year-round in our two small cinemas, and we're home to The Chicago International Children's Film Festival, the largest competitive kids fest in the U.S. We also maintain a large video retail store, a live performance space, and of course, our worldwide mail-order video catalog.

Along with all of you who have enjoyed and used The Whole Toon Catalog for many years, we were dismayed to learn that this unique resource would be shutting its doors at the end of 1995. Fortunately, we were able to acquire the services of Whole Toon's founder, Doug Ranney, and take on the job of continuing the wonderful work he started.

We are delighted to carry on the remarkable legacy of The Whole Toon Catalog: seeking out and providing you with the widest assortment of animated films from across the globe. It's a tradition that fits perfectly with our long-standing commitment to classic, foreign, independent and fine arts cinema.

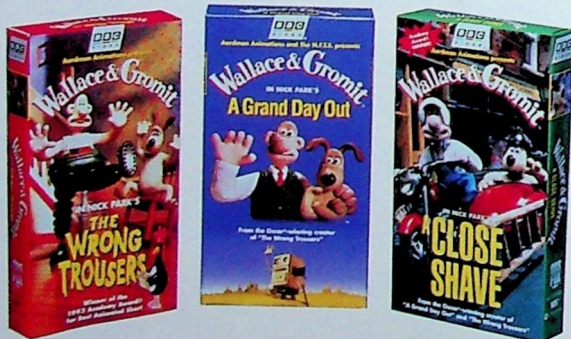

The Whole Toon Catalog was started in 1988 by animation lovers for animation lovers. We strive to provide the finest selection of animated films from the world over. We buy from hundreds of sources and we're constantly on the lookout for new films on video, whether they come from Disney or the smallest independent producer. After years of serving animation fans, scholars and professionals, we've accumulated an unmatched knowledge of cartoons released on home video. Whether you seek that certain East European stop-motion rarity or desire the complete canon of Tex Avery, we are here to provide it if it's been released on tape.

We aim to satisfy animation fans like ourselves, so you won't find much Saturday-morning fare, or really anything in the way of "kidvid." You won't see live-action fare such as muppets or The Thunderbirds, or even live-action films that incorporate animated effects (such as King Kong or Jason & The Argonauts). What you will find in these pages is the best selection of quality animated films assembled anywhere.

Wallace and Gromit are back!

Animation fans first became aware of Nick Park when his clay-animation short, Creature Comforts, won the Oscar in 1989. This quirky, funny, beautifully animated film displayed the genius Park has for the most difficult aspect of animation: character animation. In 1990 his first featurette, A Grand Day Out, introduced us to Wallace and Gromit. It would be hard to think of more unlikely candidates for stardom than the simple Northern British tinkerer Wallace and his much brighter dog Gromit, but Park brings out a subtlety of characterization that makes the pair more believable than many real-life actors. Wallace and Gromit missed out on the Oscar that time, but won the statue in 1993 for The Wrong Trousers. This comic tour de force pitted the duo against a jewel-thief penguin, and won the sort of international attention normally reserved only for big-budget Hollywood efforts. In 1995, Nick Park took home his third Oscar in seven years with Wallace and Gromit's latest mini-feature A Close Shave.

We're pleased to announce that A Close Shave will be released on video in mid-October for $9.95. When that happens, you'll find all three of Nick Park's Oscar winning films and his Oscar nominee available on home video! If you pre-order A Close Shave with us, you'll be sure to receive it within days of its release.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT VIDEO:

All our videocassettes are available in the VHS-NTSC format. To our overseas customers: sorry, we can not provide you with PAL or SECAM formats.

VHS RECORDING SPEEDS:

VHS videorecorders offer 3 record/playback speeds: SP (Standard Play/2 hr.), LP (Long Play/4 hr.) or SLP/EP (Super Long Play/Extended Play/6 hr.). Nowadays some VCR's offer only 2 speeds: SP and SLP/EP. There are a few tapes offered here that are only available in the LP mode. Please be aware that some VCR's cannot track LP tapes properly. Check your machine before ordering.

We're concerned with quality, so we generally offer only SP tapes in the catalog. But sometimes a title is available only in EP mode, so we make an exception. Lately, more and more manufacturers are switching to EP recording in an effort to cut costs. When we know a tape is EP, we always indicate it, but sometimes we don't know if we haven't actually viewed the tape ourselves.

LASERDISC FORMATS:

There are two laserdisc formats: Extended Play/CLV (Constant Linear Velocity) and Standard Play/CAV (Constant Angular Velocity). Unlike videotape, there is no difference in picture quality between the two formats. However, only the more expensive CAV format can produce freeze-frames, variable playback speeds, multiple soundtracks and other special effects (unless you own a very expensive laserdisc player with a digital frame buffer). If you wish to study a film frame by frame, you will need to get the CAV format. (CAV also is the only video format with a true 1 to 1 film frame to video frame correspondence).

Laserdiscs are notorious for changeable availability. Many of the smaller suppliers will announce a release date for a laserdisc and wait to see how much interest there is before they actually produce the title. Often the title will be delayed or sometimes cancelled altogether. When a title is produced, it is often pressed in such small quantities that it sells out quickly. The supplier may then wait until enough back orders build up before repressing the title. For the preceding reasons, please be patient with us when ordering laserdiscs. If you see something you want, it's often advisable to grab it while you have the chance.

DUBBING AND SUBTITLING:

All of the videos in the Japanimation section were originally made with Japanese dialogue. The American distributors of the films have either dubbed them into English (re-recorded the soundtracks with English dialogue) or subtitled them in English. Each video listing indicates which is the case. On laserdiscs, the term Multi-Audio indicates that the original Japanese soundtrack is available on one audio track, the English-dubbed soundtrack is available on a separate audio track, and English subtitles are accessible through the Closed Caption feature. The term Hybrid laserdisc indicates that the complete English-dubbed version of the film is on one side of the disc, and the complete English-subtitled version of the film is on the other side of the disc.

If a tape has gone out of print before this catalog was printed, we haven't listed it unless we're sure we can provide a decent supply. If you're looking for a tape that's not listed, it's worth calling us to ask about it. Although we don't have it in sufficient quantity to list it, we may still be able to come up with a few copies here and there.

PLEASE NOTE!

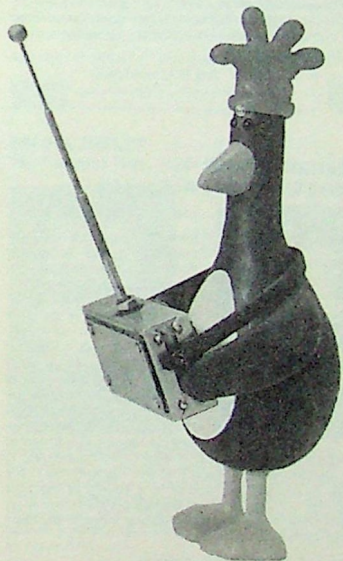

Our Telephone Area Code will be changing to (773) on October 1st, 1996!

We strive to provide our customers with the finest selection of animation on Earth. We buy from hundreds of sources in several countries and we're constantly searching for more. After years of serving animation fans, scholars and professionals, we've gotten a pretty fair idea of what you want from us, and with each new catalog we try to focus more efficiently on it.

We take the Whole in Whole Toon Catalog seriously. Our customers expect to find cartoons here, so we continue to expand our video section with each new catalog. From the latest Disney feature release to the most obscure art film on some small video label— if it's animated (and we can get our hands on it), you'll find it listed here. We try to apply a consistent criteria to our selections, eliminating the "storybook" videos that often get passed off as animation, and live-action puppetry such as the Muppets or "Supermarionation" like The Thunderbirds and Captain Scarlett. This also goes for books. We offer just about every currently in-print book dealing with animation, but we don't carry comic books, Far Side collections, or children's storybooks.

If you don't see what you're looking for, please ask for it. Unless we have an adequate supply on hand, we won't list out of print book titles or discontinued video titles. However, we just might still have some around so it can't hurt to ask. Also keep in mind that new books and videos are released constantly, while our full catalog is printed only twice a year. If something becomes available between catalogs, we'll most likely have it on hand when you call.

7 MINUTES

The Life & Death of the American Animated Cartoon

Norman M. Klein (1993)

Approaching the subject from a decidedly scholarly point of view, Klein examines the Gestalt of the Hollywood cartoon. He traces the social and aesthetic sensibilities that shaped and were reflected in the works of Disney, Warners, MGM and others, and reviews the graphics, scripts and marketing of each era. He details the internal production and political structures of the studios and discovers links between cartoon and live action movies, newspapers, popular illustration, and the entertainment architecture of Disneyland. Thoughtful analysis for the serious toon student.

THE 50 GREATEST CARTOONS

As Selected by 1,000 Animation Professionals

Edited by Jerry Beck (1994)

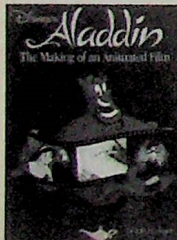

Anytime you select a finite number of the "greatest" cartoons and even rank them, you're bound to ignite a firestorm of arguments. But that's good - so pick up this book and start trashing the selections! Jerry Beck had the unenviable job of compiling the 1,000 ballots returned by animation professionals and ranking the cartoons in accordance with the voting. Each cartoon gets a big spread with credits, Jerry's plot synopsis and background info, and oodles of color photos. Regardless of your opinion of the rankings, it's an incredible reference volume and conversation starter.

AMERICAN ANIMATED FILMS:

The Silent Era, 1897-1929

Denis Gifford (1990)

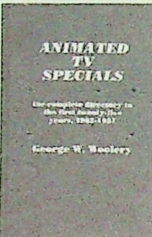

Arranged chronologically by series, this is the first complete annotated listing of all the animated films produced in the United States before the advent of sound. The book forms a companion volume to the author's British Animated Films 1895-1985 and will prove a boon to researchers of the history and development of animation. In this volume is information that has been scattered and virtually inaccessible for more than half a century.

ANIMATED TV SPECIALS:

Complete Directory to The First 25 Years, 1962-1987

George W. Woolery (1989)

Like Woolery's previous book Children's Television, this volume is an amazing feat of research. It is an encyclopedic listing of all the special animated presentations aired on various networks or syndicated extensively in the U.S., from the first in 1962 through the 1987 season. It's the first book to trace the history, growth and development of animated films broadcast on American TV through descriptive profiles.

Each entry includes broadcast history, production credits, narrators & voices and a lengthy synopsis and analysis. The book is thoroughly cross-referenced. A truly awesome and complete reference tool for researchers and fans alike.

ANIMATING CULTURE

Hollywood Cartoons from the Sound Era

Eric Smoodin (1993)

Smoodin explores the animated short and the system that mass-produced them from a scholarly viewpoint. He examines how they were exhibited in theatres and how they fit into the overall bill of fare presented to the audience. Who did they speak to? What did they say about race, class and gender? What were the social functions of Donald Duck and Minnie Mouse? He argues that cartoons appealed to public debate about political matters. His analysis of the multiple discourses embedded in a variety of cartoons reveals the complex and sometimes contradictory ways that animation dealt with class relations, labor, imperialism and censorship.

ANIMATION ART

The Early Years 1911-1954

Jeff Lotman (1995)

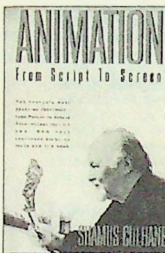

Animation art collector Jeff Lotman has assembled for this book the most ambitious collection of original animation art ever. Nearly 6800 pieces are illustrated, most in color, from Winsor McCay in 1911 through 1954. The art in this book was offered at auction, and thus is in the marketplace. The book contains prices paid for each piece at auction, plus prices for several thousand additional pieces. In addition to its value as a price guide, the book also covers the animation art process and the world of animation art collecting.

ANIMATION FROM SCRIPT TO SCREEN

Shamus Culhane (1988)

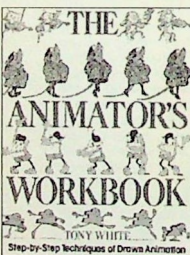

Shamus Culhane, the animator of the dwarfs' march in Snow White, of Pluto, of countless other Disney sequences as well as those of other studios, makes it possible to learn a concrete skill from a book. Covering every aspect of film animation, from basic mechanics to giving creativity full play, and including writing, recording, acting, dialogue - even how to manage an animation studio of one's own, Culhane lives up to the book's title.

Written by a man who knows and loves his subject and has a gift for communicating his thoughts.

BEFORE MICKEY

The Animated Film, 1898-1928

Donald Crafton (1993)

In this revised edition of his 1984 book, Crafton's scholarship is quite lively, and his descriptions evocative and often funny. He has compellingly filled the gaps in the area of silent animated films that have been so overlooked over the years. The documentary material covering artistic, commercial, and technological developments in the USA and Europe will prove invaluable to animation specialists. The book chronicles the achievements of Emile Cohl, Otto Messmer, Winsor McCay, John Randolph Bray, and many others, as the technique of film animation advanced from the early Zoetrope devices and "trick films" toward the compelling new art form it eventually became. All in all, Crafton has succeeded in writing a factual, scholarly reference work that is a pleasure to read for recreation.

CHUCK JONES: A FLURRY OF DRAWINGS

Hugh Kenner (1994)

Literary critic Hugh Kenner has written a compact, incisive examination of Chuck Jones and his body of work. Kenner notes the biographical details, but focuses on the films themselves, and the time and place in which they were made. His insights into the humor, the technical virtuosity, and the originality of Jones' best work betray the author's deep affection for the medium and Jones in particular. A modest man, Jones relates that a pig cannot be made into a racehorse. What might be reasonably hoped for, he says, is "a mighty fast pig." Kenner argues that Jones has indeed made himself a racehorse.

THE DISNEY THAT NEVER WAS

Charles Solomon (1995)

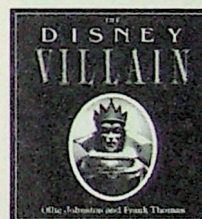

The Disney archives contain a treasure trove of art for uncompleted Disney films, many of which are as astounding and innovative as the best of Disney—but have never been made available to the public. After years of research, animation historian Charles Solomon has finally made this material available. He examines these rich and various works, accompanying his discussion with animation drawings, concept art and gags. Among the projects are Mickey, Donald, and Goofy shorts, wartime propaganda films, early versions of Fantasia, an ambitious feature Chanticleer and Reynard, and a collaboration between Disney and Salvador Dali called Destino.

THE DISNEY VILLAIN

Frank Thomas & Ollie Johnston (1993)

For generations, Disney villains have had a special place in the minds of moviegoers. In fact they're often more interesting than the heroes and heroines. People love to hate Maleficent, Stromboli, and Jafar. Disney veterans Thomas and Johnston have established a respected place among animation authors with their previous books, and here they feature the villains with full color portraits, spot illustrations, and an inside view of the Disney animation process. Magnificently packaged, with gatefold and an original hologram on the jacket.

THE NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

The Film • The Art • The Vision

Frank Thompson (1993)

Learn how Tim Burton began work on this film over ten years ago—long before he directed Beetlejuice, Edward Scissorhands or Batman. See his sketchpad where he roughed out his vision of the film, and read excerpts from his poem, upon which the film is based. Take a close look at the storyboards, see the character designs, examine the puppet armatures, watch the fabricators mold, paint, and detail the 227 puppets. Watch the animators painstakingly film the story frame-by-frame and learn how computers assisted them. Listen to the insights of creator Tim Burton and director Henry Selick. You can begin to appreciate the pioneering nature of this movie (an advance on the replacement technique developed by George Pal) and the incredible creative effort behind it.

PRINCE OF THE MAGIC KINGDOM

Michael Eisner and the Re-Making of Disney

Joe Flower (1991)

Joe Flower's unauthorized account of Disney's comeback from the post-Walt doldrums is notable for the wealth of detailed inside information. He gets the reader through all the stock maneuverings and takeover attempts without a trace of tedium, meanwhile driving home just how immense an empire Disney built in his lifetime. Best of all, Flower imparts a true understanding of how Walt's death left the company rudderless, with aging theme parks, worn-out formula movies, and a jumbled, sputtering feature animation department. When you finish this book, you will have a much better idea of who Michael Eisner is, how he earned his whiz-kid image, and what he did to remedy Disney's weaknesses and capitalize on its strengths.

WALT DISNEY: HOLLYWOOD'S DARK PRINCE

Marc Eliot (1993)

In a Disney trashing reminiscent of Richard Schickel's 1968 opus 'The Disney Version', Marc Eliot does his best to shatter all the standard images of the mouse-meister. As he recites the now standard resume of Walt's career, Eliot cites rumor, hearsay and anecdotal evidence that Walt was something short of a saint. According to Eliot, Disney was a tyrannical, obsessive-compulsive, anti-Semitic, alcoholic, impotent, petty and bullying, illegitimate FBI stool pigeon. Perhaps there are kernels of truth in the author's portrait. The reader must judge for himself.

Over the course of the last 70 years, few people in Western civilization have occasioned more commentary, criticism or discussion than Walt Disney. The writings alone about the man and his works must number in the hundreds of thousands. That's where Ms. Jackson comes in. She has attempted to give an overview of what has been written over the years - good and bad - and to summarize many of the areas of modern culture that Disney has influenced. An entire chapter is devoted to Disney's speeches and interviews. The largest chapter lists many of the main sources of writings, abstracting major works and listing hundreds of other references for those who wish to do their own research. WALT IN WONDERLAND

The Silent Films of Walt Disney

Russell Merritt & J.B. Kaufman (1992)

From 1921 to 1928, Walt Disney made upwards of 90 silent films, including the Alice comedies and Oswald cartoons. Years before Mickey Mouse, he recruited an extraordinary array of talent that included Ubbe Iwerks, Rudy Ising, Carl Stalling, Hugh Harman and Friz Freleng. Drawing on interviews with co-workers, business papers, promotional materials, scripts, drawings, and correspondence, the authors have done a remarkable job of reconstructing Disney's silent film career. Those interested in the pre-Mickey days will find this book an unparalleled source of facts, critical insight, and rare imagery - including much artwork from Disney's own hand. Presented in a beautifully designed book that includes a detailed and complete filmography up to and including Steamboat Willie.

ALICE

84 min. 1988 [Jan Svankmajer] Czech
Jan Svankmajer, the Czech master of animation, has fulfilled a lifetime ambition in this interpretation of Alice in Wonderland. Svankmajer's Alice remains true to Carroll's original, but bears the stamp of his own distinctive style and obsessions. Combination of animation and live action.

VHS: S10942 19.95

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

80 min. 1951 [Lou Bunin]
One of the most faithful adaptations of Lewis Carroll's satirical daydream, this long lost masterpiece was produced and directed by master puppeteer Lou Bunin in England. The film starts with a live action prologue, then enters the abstract Wonderland with incomparable puppets and Carol Marsh as Alice.

VHS: S06599 24.95

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

75 min. 1951 [Disney]
Walt Disney's adaptation of the Lewis Carroll tale is animated in the traditional lavish Disney style, though lacking the grandiosity of earlier Disney features. Directors: Clyde Geronimi, Hamilton Luske and Wilfred Jackson.

ANIMAL FARM

72 min. 1954 [Halas & Batchelor] UK
George Orwell's dark view of the future is animated in this well-done feature directed by John Halas. The animals of Farm Manor revolt and name their new property 'Animal Farm'. For a while, their socialist utopia thrives, but soon the pigs assume more power and the grand ideals evaporate into a totalitarian society. The first British feature-length animated film.

VHS: S00054 29.95

ANIMALAND

30 min. 1948 [G.B. Animation]
David Hand was one of the key figures in developing the Disney style of full animation. He directed Snow White and Bambi plus many Oscar-winning Silly Symphonies. Following WWII, Hand went to England to produce a series of 19 films for the J. Arthur Rank Organisation. The films range from stylized fantasies of regional Britain to fully realized character animation featuring Ginger Nutt. Film print quality varies. 4 titles: Ginger Nutt's Forest Dragon, Ginger Nutt's Bee Bother, Fantasy On London and It's A Lovely Day.

VHS: S16647 14.95

Meet Yakko and Wakko, the Warner brothers, and Dot, the Warner sister. Find out how the troublemakers first got sentenced to the Warner Bros. water tower and what happens when they're turned loose in a psychiatrist's office, the studio executive suite, a movie set and inside a video store after hours.

VHS: S27927 12.95

ANIMANIACS: YOU WILL BUY THIS VIDEO!

45 min. 1994 [Warner Bros.] HiFi Stereo
This seems to be a harmless assortment of the best adventures of lab mice Pinky & the Brain. In reality it contains subliminal messages that will hypnotically render you the Brain's willing puppet in a plan of global domination - after just a few repeated viewings.

VHS: S27928 12.95

ANIMANIACS STEW

45 min. 1994 [Warner Bros.] HiFi Stereo
It's mass hysterical when many Animaniacs favorites - the Warners, Slappy Squirrel, Pinky & the Brain, toddler Mindy and her devoted dog Buttons - all cut loose with comic results. Highlights: Dot's beatnik recital of May Had A Little Lamb and the Brain's voiceover recording session.

VHS: S27929 12.95

ANIMANIACS: HELLOOOO, HOLIDAYS!

45 min. 1994 [Warner Bros.] HiFi Stereo
Tis the season for Yuletide hilarity, from Twas the Day Before Christmas and The Little Drummer Warners to a truly unique rendition of Jingle Bells and a typically zany retelling of A Christmas Carol. Plus a wonderful story by Steven Spielberg about the life and hard times of a sheet of gold wrapping paper.

BOOP OOP A DOOP

74 min. 1986
Steve Allen narrates this retrospective of Betty Boop cartoons. There are plenty of complete cartoons along with numerous clips illustrating the evolution of Betty from a dog sidekick of Bimbo to a human girlfriend of Bimbo's owner. Much attention is paid to Betty's sex appeal, and the toning down of the character in the post Hayes era. Entertaining, informative, and a chance to see some film of Betty never before released on home video.

THE CAMERAMAN'S REVENGE

The Amazing Puppet Animation of Ladislav Starewicz

80 min. 1912-58 [Ladislav Starewicz]

Russia and France

Ladislav Starewicz created some of the most imaginative and loveliest works of puppet animation ever filmed. While working in Russia, he directed the legendary The Cameraman's Revenge (1912), a story of love and infidelity among the insects, and the newly rediscovered The Insect's Christmas (1913), a dazzlingly beautiful film of the yuletide celebrations of a Christmas tree ornament and his tiny friends. After relocating to Paris, he made the political allegory Frogland (1922), the hand-colored fable Voice of The Nightingale (1923), the irresistible The Mascot (1933), and the snowland fantasy Winter Carousel (1958). B&W and hand-colored.

CARTOONS THAT TIME FORGOT

THE UB IWERKS COLLECTION

A 7-volume series programmed by Greg Ford, celebrating the pioneering solo animation work of Ub Iwerks and the Van Beuren Studio. Characters like Flip The Frog, Cubby Bear, Willie Whopper and Molly Moo Cow may not be household names, but the people behind them — Ub Iwerks, Grim Natwick, Frank Tashlin, Irv Spence, Bill Littlejohn, Burt Gillette, Shamus Culhane and Carl Stalling — make for a veritable Who's Who of master cartoon makers. This series unearths important missing links in animation history, mostly mastered from the restored original negatives, that have not been seen in decades.

THE CURIOUS ADVENTURES OF MR. WONDERBIRD (La Bergere et Le Ramoneur)

64 min. 1953 [Paul Grimault] France
In this visually striking French animated feature, the outrageous Mr. Wonderbird (voiced by Peter Ustinov) narrates the story of a most bizarre enchanted castle. Paintings of a shepherd girl and a chimney sweep come to life, and the evil, concealed King decides he must have the girl for himself. When she and the chimney sweep run away, it takes all the help that Mr. Wonderbird and his friends can muster to save them from the pursuing King. The final sequence of a gigantic mechanical monster and destruction of the palace contains stunning imagery that rivals the best examples of Japanese. French dubbed in English. LP Speed.

HOPPO THE HIPPO

35 min. [Soviet] USSR

This tape contains three cartoons from the former Soviet Union - all of which are pretty crude but nonetheless fascinating to Western eyes. Hoppo The Hippo is an educational short in which a hippopotamus' fear of hypodermic needles teaches all citizens the importance of submitting to their jaundice vaccinations (really!). The Champ features a soviet Tom & Jerry-like duo - Big Bad Wolf and Bugs Rabbit - carrying their hijinks to the 1980 Moscow Olympics. (Unlike the other two shorts on the tape, this one is not dubbed, but has its original Russian soundtrack). TV Blues is more Wolf & Rabbit - this time invading a Moscow TV station and wreaking havoc. This tape is well worth watching - despite the crude animation and awful dubbing, the context of the stories and the cultural references therein provide a fascinating peek at everyday life in Soviet Russia circa 1980. Mr. Magoo

Mr. Magoo was featured in the theatrical shorts produced by UPA and distributed by Columbia Pictures. Based on Jim Backus' radio character 'The Man In The Club Car', a misinformed, loudmouthed businessman on a commuter train. The brainchild of John Hubley, created to counter the cute anthropomorphism rampant at the time. Voiced by Jim Backus, the near-sighted, bumbling Magoo was by far UPA's biggest star. [Also see listings under 'Columbia Pictures Cartoon Classics'.]

The Complete, Uncensored PRIVATE SNAFU VOL. 1

62 min. 1943-44 [Warner Bros.] Hi-Fi
Private Snafu was a character created by Warner Bros. during WW2 for the Army-Navy Screen Magazine. These cartoons were shown only to servicemen, and were intended to convey serious messages behind the typical Warner humor. Backo Video has done a great job transferring them to video from very nice looking B&W prints. The shorts are even letterboxed, with director and release credits. 14 titles: Coming! Snafu!, Gripes, Spies, The Goldbrick, The Infantry Blues, Fighting Tools, The Home Front, Rumors, Booby Traps, Snafuperman, Snafu vs. Malaria Mike, A Lecture On Camouflage, Gas and Going Home.

VHS: S29687 29.95

RAGGEDY ANN & ANDY: A MUSICAL ADVENTURE

87 min. 1976 [Richard Williams]
Oscar-winning animator Richard Williams brings the classic dolls to life and 16 songs from Joe Raposo give this feature considerable charm. Masterful animation by Art Babbitt, Grim Natwick, and other legends provides beautiful movement and draftsmanship, but the rendering at times seems only slightly better than a pencil-test. This feature was hampered by a short production schedule and Williams' inexperience as a producer; at times it can drag, but at its best it is hypnotic and lovely.

21 min. [Disney/Amblin] CC

The three stand-alone Roger Rabbit theatrical shorts (What's Cookin' is incorporated into the Who Framed Roger Rabbit feature) are collected at last on one tape. In Tummy Trouble, Roger takes Baby Herman to the hospital after he swallows his rattle, in Roller Coaster Rabbit, Roger takes Baby Herman to a fair, and in Trail Mix-Up, the pair go hiking in the woods. All three cartoons are brilliant homages to the Tex Avery and Bob Clampett school of 1940's Hollywood cartoons, but done with lush production values only Disney could bankroll. Laserdisc is CAV.

TINY TOON ADVENTURES: HOW I SPENT MY VACATION

80 min. 1991 [Amblin/Warner] HiFi

This theatrical feature never made it to the theatres, going straight to video instead. Plucky Duck and Hampton head for (gasp and drool!) Happy World Land, Buster & Babs turn a squirt-gun fight into a globe-trotting adventure, and Elmyra treats the ferocious beasts in a drive-through safari park like cute widdle pudgy tats. The animation is very good, and the energy level remains high for all 80 minutes.

THE TUNE

80 min. 1992 [Bill Plympton]
Bill Plympton's one-man animated feature film is a tour de force. It's a series of musical shorts linked together by the story of Dell, who has to come up with a hit song within the hour. The songs are provided by Maureen McElhannon and cover such subjects as Fido by Nooby, Lovesick Hotel and No Nose Blues. Plympton's distinctively warped style lends itself well to the subject matter. Tape also includes "Draw," and "The Making of The Tune."

WALLACE & GROMIT:

A GRAND DAY OUT

30 min. 1990 [Nick Park] UK

Nick Park's charming clay animation brings to life the comically pedestrian Englishman Wallace and his dog Gromit. In this Academy Award nominated featurette, when the pair run out of cheese for their tea-time biscuits, they build a spaceship in the basement in order to fly to the moon. Once there, they meet a truly outlandish moon creature that takes exception to their cheese-harvesting mission.

WALLACE & GROMIT:

THE WRONG TROUSERS

30 min. 1994 [Nick Park] UK

In this Academy Award winning featurette, Wallace and Gromit are forced to take in a boarder—a comically sinister penguin. Wallace's latest invention, the techno-trousers (with the hapless Wallace wearing them), is commandeered by the penguin to execute a daring jewel robbery. Fortunately, an alert Gromit intercedes at the last moment, and the film climaxes with a hilarious chase sequence that also represents a new pinnacle in the technique of stop-motion animation.

WINSOR McCAY: ANIMATION LEGEND:

100 min. [Winsor McCay]
Winsor McCay was one of the most influential artists in the history of animation. This exclusive collection contains every surviving film made by McCay, transferred from beautiful 35mm Cinematheque Quebecoise archival prints. The highlight of the collection is a stunning hand-colored copy of Little Nemo (1911), taken directly from the only known 35mm print in existence. Also included are How A Mosquito Operates, Gertie The Dinosaur, The Sinking of The Lusitania, Gertie On Tour, The Centaurs and Flip's Circus. The collection also features extensive liner notes by John Canemaker, an article by the Cinematheque's curator, Louise Baudet, and comments from producer Albert Miller regarding the film to tape transfer. In addition to a newly composed score by R.J. Miller, all films were digitally recorded at the proper speed, and letterboxed in the original 1.33:1 aspect ratio. Color & B&W.

MIGHTY SPACE MINERS

60 min. 1994 [KSS] HiFi Stereo

Only the bravest and most resourceful of individuals can ever become Mighty Space Miners, the hardworking pilots, scientists, and technicians who keep Earth supplied with priceless metals and isotopes from deep-space asteroid mines in the year 2060. This is a stunning film that depicts what happens when a military satellite triggers a catastrophic disaster on a remote asteroid colony. Told from the point of view of a young boy, this film documents the surviving colonists' desperate battle to survive in a hostile environment in which every moment carries the possibility of instant death by fire, cold, radiation or explosive decompression. Featuring realistic depictions of man in space, Mighty Space Miners is accurate in every detail.

SPACE BATTLESHIP YAMATO

135 min.
This is the first Yamato feature film of the five eventually made. It is the theatrical version of the first Star Blazers TV series, Quest For Iscandar. The Yamato has only 365 days to make a 148,000 light-year voyage from Earth to the planet Iscandar and return with a neutralizer that will cleanse Earth's irradiated atmosphere. On the trip, the Yamato survives oceans of concentrated sulfuric acid, a metal eating gas attack in space and battles with Lord Desler's fleet. It is in this seminal film that we first meet Susumu and Mamory Kodai, Yuki Mori, Captain Okita, Dr. Sado, Shiro Sanada, IQ-9 and the mysterious Stasha of Iscandar. Subtitled.

Facets Video grew out of our belief that one's home—your home—could become the art movie theatre of the 1990s. With video, you can discover classics, silent films and other rare film treasures on your TV screen.

But to make great film and video really accessible to everyone, we needed to create a collection of breathtaking proportions: a library of over 27,000 foreign, independent, experimental, classic American, silent, documentary, fine arts, and quality children's videos and laserdiscs.

People often ask us, "Have you watched all those movies?" Well, without any sleep, it would take only four full years of movie watching! And Facets Video is always growing, always searching for special films in which the director has something to say, and a challenging new way in which to say it.

Each day, we're thrilled at the discovery of great classics, and bold new talents. With the support of film and video lovers like yourself, Facets Video has grown into an incredible resource for anyone who has ever loved the moving image.
